2009 TRIONE CHARDONNAY RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY, RIVER ROAD RANCH

90 POINTS

"Rich nose of butterscotch; silky, fresh and bright with tangy acidity and deep fruit; lush, concentrated and long."

"This is the wine you pour when you're serving a buttery sauce with fish, or a creamy cheese dish. It holds its own with rich foods without overpowering the flavors it has been asked to elevate. That's its job as a food wine: to bring out the qualities in each dish that might otherwise become smothered and even obliterated. In that context, the 2009 Chard adds luster to a special meal on a starry summer night — like, well, lobster dipped in lemon butter."
