2009 TRIONE PINOT NOIR RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY, RIVER ROAD RANCH

90 POINTS

"Deep, rich black cherry with smooth texture and rich style; lush but showing excellent acid structure; long, dense and balanced."

"HIGHLY RECOMMENDED"

California Grapevine

"Proof that a big flavorful Pinot Noir can be very well-balanced and satisfying. The rich nose is a bit tight at first offering rich notes of dark berry, ripe raspberry, briar and spice. A superb round mouth-feel with supple and well-integrated tannins. Flavors of cherry, ripe strawberry and raspberry are dominant with intriguing hints of cola, vanilla and baking spice combining for a mom's Pinot pie sensation. As the wine opens, the nose becomes richer and the finish becomes more complex with leather and dark spice."

92 POINTS

"Very smooth on entry with good structural elements underpinning the juicy tart cherry and strawberry fruit... This is a lot of wine but it's very well balanced and long. Fruit driven for sure but there's plenty of detail as well."
