

2011 Chardonnay

90 points

“Sultry pear and baked apple are the stars. Lemony and creamy on the palate, this offers slight hints of honey and tropical fruit. It boasts a long finish and robust yet restrained oak that should relax in time.”

Virginie Boone, Wine Enthusiast Magazine

“Juicy and crisp with spice and bright fruit; fresh and tangy, long and balanced.

Anthony Dias Blue, Tasting Panel Magazine

Double Gold Medal, Best of Class

2014 San Francisco International Wine Competition

“Winemaker Scot Covington is quietly building a reputation for himself as one of the greatest winemakers in California. This Chardonnay, from individual vine blocks on the estate, is rich, round, and opulent”

Catherine Fallis, Planet Grape
